No. 735-40/W dated 25.2.41

delegation of powers under rule 81(2)(6) of the Defence of India Rules

Under the Defence of India Rules certain powers are exercisable by the Central Government and certain others by the Provincial Governments. The exercise of powers under rule 81(2) is vested in the Central Government. By the present notification they have invested the Provincial Government also with the power to control the price or rate at which Kolhus or boiling pans can be sold.

In Mysore a similar notification is not necessary. The powers exercisable by either the Central or ~~xxx~~ by a Provincial Government is exercisable by the Government of His Highness the Maharaja.

The paper will if approved be filed.
